Our Talented Instructors

Steve "Oz" Osburn Steve Osburn has been "living music" for more than 30 years, sharing his knowledge with people of all ages. The New England Montessori Teacher Training Center helped define his goal to provide the best musical education for young people and adults.

Dave Buehrer

Dave is a singer/songwriter/recording artist who has been playing guitar for 30 years. He performs with original and cover bands and has two CDs out under the name Paledave. He has taught guitar classes for area home school groups and Ann Arbor Public Schools.

Leslie Zager Leslie has been inspiring kids with visual arts projects for the past 20 years and has a degree in fine arts from M.S.U. Her experience ranges from work at the Ann Arbor Art Center to the Ann Arbor Public Schools, all while using a range of mediums.

For more than thirty years
Oz's Music has been part of the Ann Arbor Community—providing new and used musical equipment and musical opportunities for musicians of all ages. Visit the web site for a complete list of classes.

Oz's Music Environment, next door to Oz's Music, includes over 50 instruments.
